Pentecost
June 9th, 2019

Welcome to the Sunday Eucharist as we rejoice today at the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Hymns: 114, 541, 84, 419

Today's celebration takes us to the room where Jesus disciples waited in prayer after his ascension. They received the Holy Spirit, as they had been promised, power for their mission to tell the good news of Jesus. We, and the whole Church, pray now. 'Come, Holy Spirit.'

For your prayers

For the Church especially Justin our archbishop, Sarah our bishop, and Graham our area bishop, and for Christians to love as Jesus loved

For peace and justice, and in commemoration of the D-Day Landings

For the UK in challenging times

For the sick and the suffering

For the departed

Notices

Refreshments after worship do come into the church hall for tea or coffee after the service.

No Thursday morning eucharist this week.

Service booklet for use from next Sunday right through until Advent at the end of the year is at the back of the church, if anyone would like to look at it advance.

Corpus Christi is a festival also known as 'Day of Thanksgiving for the Institution of Holy Communion' and will be kept by us on Sunday June 23rd.

Social media if you use Facebook and/or Twitter, St. Francis is on both. Please like the page or follow us.
