

St. Francis of Assisi, Isleworth

Second Sunday after Trinity
Sunday June 13th, 2021

Sunday at 11am

Jesus told many parables, and today we hear two of them. It is especially striking the way he speaks of the mustard seed, and so much coming from so little. It may seem to us that what we do in our lives is so little, and how do I bring closer or more clearer God's reign? God's kingdom? Yet from those things that seem inconsequential, a great deal can come. It is God who gives the growth, not us.

Notices

Trish North-Holmes, RIP Trish's funeral will be in church on Wednesday this week at 1pm. If you wish to attend, please let Fr. Peter know. Trish wanted people to wear bright colours rather than black!

Thursday Eucharist this week at 10am.

Vestments in memory of Fr. Lawrence Smith The Parochial Church Council, and Fr. Lawrence's family, have supported the idea that we buy a set of purple vestments in his memory. Purple is worn in Advent and Lent, and our current set is very worn. You can see them here <https://vestment.co.uk/product-eng-15545-Set-of-Purple-Semi-Gothic-Chasuble-burse-maniple-and-chalice-veil-model-784.html> The cost is currently £487, and if anyone would like to contribute towards the cost, in memory of Fr. Lawrence, please let me know.

'Time for Tea' assuming restrictions are further lifted in June, we will be having a time together on Saturday July 17th from 2-4pm outside the church for tea, scones, and fellowship—something which had been restricted for so long. Please note the date, and we will see what happens next month. Is there someone you could invite to come with you, and see the church? Especially if they have never done so before.
