

St. Francis of Assisi, Isleworth

Seventh Sunday of Easter,
Sunday of the Ascension
Sunday May 12th, 2024

Today's gospel reading is how St. Matthew ends his gospel: the risen Christ giving his disciples the 'great commission.' They are to tell, baptise, and teach; and remember that Christ is always with them. This remains the task of the Church today. Let us pray that it may still be faithful to this commission.

For your prayers

With thanks for the ascension of Christ, and that he ever lives to intercede for us

For the Church especially Sarah our bishop, and Emma our area bishop

For the mission of the Church; for Jamali baptised yesterday, and Tré who will be baptised today

For peace in our world and especially in the Holy Land and Ukraine; for the wider Middle East

For those in authority

For the sick and suffering, for those in hospital, in different forms of care or supported at home

For the departed especially Hazel Fothergill who died recently
