Welcome to everyone today for the service today.
Refreshments are served in the hall after the service

Organist today welcome to Steven Robinson.

Thursday Eucharist this week at 10am.

Next Sunday we welcome the Revd. Rachel Wooden, Curate at St. John and St. Mary, Isleworth. Rachel was with us on a Sunday earlier in the year, and returns next week, as part of her continuing formation after ordination.

Summer reading! For five weeks, we read from chapter 6 of St. John's Gospel. It's wonderful! Please read it for yourself at home

Next Sunday, August 4th, 2024

St. Francis of Assisi, Isleworth

Ninth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday July 28th, 2024

Today's gospel reading is the first part of a profound chapter in St. John's Gospel. We read today of Jesus miraculously feeding the crowd. It is a story showing God's generosity, grace and abundance. The eucharist continues to point us to that generosity as Christ feeds us now with his very self, in word and sacrament.

For your prayers

For the Church, for a spirit of thankfulness
For Sarah our bishop, and Emma our area bishop
For The King
For ; for power to be used well for the good of all
For peace in our world and especially in the Holy Land and Ukraine; for the wider Middle East; for Sudan and Myanmar in the midst of a civil war; for the USA
For the sick and suffering, for those in hospital, in different forms of care or supported at home
For the departed especially those who died recently, and any we know whose anniversaries fall at this time
