

St. Francis of Assisi, Isleworth

Third Sunday after Trinity
Sunday July 6th, 2025

In the second reading, S. Paul, writing to the church in Galatia, says that he will boast in nothing except the cross. This may seem odd. Why boast about a means of execution? For Paul, the cross is central to understanding the love of God manifested in Christ. Before this love, nothing else matters. All the usual things that people might boast about, are as nothing, compared to this.

For your prayers

For the Church, that we may boast of nothing except Christ
For those who will choose the next Archbishop of Canterbury
For Sarah our bishop, and Emma our area bishop
For The King and for all in authority in this land; for the many challenges facing the UK
For Ukraine; for places where there is civil war; for the Holy Land
For the sick and suffering, for those in hospital, in different forms of care or supported at home; for hospital and health care services
For the departed especially Joan Snell recently

Notices

Welcome to everyone to worship today. A collection is taken during the service, but you also make a donation using the contactless machine at the back of the church.

New email address for Fr. Peter please note that he has a new email address—vicar@stfrancis-isleworth.org The old email address will still work for the moment.

Refreshments will be served after the service today.

Organist today welcome to Jonathan Bridger.

No Thursday eucharist this week.

Funeral for Joan Snell, RIP on Monday July 7th at 12 noon at St. Vincent's church, Witham Road

Next Sunday, July 13th, 2025
Fourth Sunday after Trinity

Readings: Deuteronomy 30.9-14; Colossians 1.1-14; Luke 10.25-37

Vicar and Assistant Area Director of Ordinands

The Revd. Peter Vannozzi

07368 453600

vicar@stfrancis-isleworth.org

www.stfrancis-isleworth.org
facebook.com/stfrancisisleworth stfrancisisleworth@bsky.social