Two of today's readings focus on being clear about what our ultimate priority is. The first reading has the writer be clear about so much of what we humans care about being 'vanity.' The gospel shows Jesus being clear about God coming before all else. This is easier to assent to verbally, than live, but the teaching is clear.

For your prayers

For the Church, that we may value God above all things
For those who will choose the next Archbishop of Canterbury
For Sarah our bishop, and Emma our area bishop
For The King and for all in authority in this land; for the many challenges facing the UK
For Ukraine; for places where there is civil war; for the Holy Land; for continuing conflict in so many parts of the world
For those facing poverty, starvation and destitution
For the sick and suffering, for those in hospital, in different forms of care or supported at home; for hospital and health care services
For the departed especially any suddenly, violently or unprepared
