Readings: Exodus 24.12-18; 2 Peter 1.26-21; Matthew 17.1-9

St. Francis of Assisi, Isleworth 2 before Lent Sunday February 8th, 2026

The theme of the readings today is creation and God as Creator—the choice of first reading especially illustrates that. God says 'Let there be', and it is! Wishing to care for creation is not a political point, but a requirement if we see the world as God's. Let us today give thanks for our own place in creation as God's beloved and blessed creatures.

For your prayers

Thanks for creation, and to God as our Creator
For Sarah our archbishop, and Emma our area bishop
For The King and for all in authority in this land; for the Holy Land;
for continuing conflict in so many parts of the world—for Ukraine, Iran, the Holy Land, Myanmar, Sudan, and so many other places
For those facing poverty, starvation and destitution
For those who struggle at this time of year For the sick and suffering, for those in hospital, in different forms of care or supported at home; for hospital and health care services For the departed, and for those who mourn particularly any who have lost loved ones over this time
